Daily Report

Here are the photos from today's activities; it has been a very full day, and is well after midnight due to our late arrival to the hotel after the Marine Barracks Parade show. So I we'll let the pictures represent a 1,000 words, and we'll be brief in our discussion. Thanks for understanding.

Highlights of the day:

- Tour of Gettysburg Battlefield
- Elevator to top of Washington Monument for panoramic views of DC
- Marine Barracks Parade
- Traffic and road construction on Washington Beltway!

Good night!
