Daily Report

It's really late tonight (actually early Monday morning); we just returned from our laundry stop and I am running on the last bit of energy as we wrap up our successful week of touring. Here are a few highlights from today and some photos.

- Sunday Patriotic and Scouting Church Service at Arlington National Cemetery; Assistant Senior Patrol Leader, Brandon Elwell delivered a terrific talk about Scouting, Arlington Cemetery, Diversity and being reverent, and Troop Bugler, Jacob Debry played TAPS on the trumpet. Senior Patrol Leader, Conner Butler helped carry the large US flag over the Scouts during a tribute to Old Glory.
- Arlington Cemetery visit, including the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier and John F. Kennedy grave site.
- Visit to the National Cathedral and Georgetown drive by.
- Lunch at Union (train) Station.
- Free time on the Smithsonian Museum Mall; Natural History and Air & Space Museums were most popular with the Scouts.
- Our surprise dinner event was a night at the Medieval Times Castle, where we were guests of the King for a horse, jousting and sword fighting show (we cheered on the Green (evil) Knight, but of course he was beaten by the prince in the end); this was a great wrap up to our week of touring.
- Except - we finally got to doing our laundry after postponing it until we could wait no longer - hence the late night tonight. We'll sleep a bit longer in the morning and then load up for the camp experience.

As I am not sure yet what the internet connection will be like at Jamboree, please give me some time to see what I can do to keep families informed of our camp activities. I'll be in contact as soon as possible, but it may take a day (or two).

Good night!
